Suit To Halt Non-Budget Spending Threatened

GC Council Votes Not To Reconsider Action
To Build New Sidewalks

The Granite City council was eaten with another lawsuit
by one of its members Monday night to halt spending of money for projects not included in the current budget.

The threat was aimed at several sidewalk installations authorized earlier this month, but not listed in the 1963-64
budget. Protesting Alderman Gabriel Betner also called upon City Atty. George Filloff to provide the council with a legal interpretation of laws pertaining to tax appropriations, tax levies and spending without proper appropriation.

Mrs. Betner, chairman of the sidewalk project at the start of Monday night's lengthy council session, which was attended by all 16 aldermen and the mayor.
The aldermen said they had conferred with an attorney for the Illinois Municipal League immediately after the Dec. 2 meeting and was advised that spending for unbudgeted items was illegal.

Suggests Delay In Work
She called for the sidewalk work to be delayed until the next budget is adopted next summer.
Mrs. Betner added that the city could be penalized by court if it proceeded. "If I go into a lawsuit myself," she said, "I'll go into a lawsuit myself."

The aldermen requested permission to change her Dec. 2
vote on the sidewalk program.
The action was taken by the alder-men's vote, but the city council said that she didn't want to bring a lawsuit against herself.

Alderman Donald Patton pointed out money could be transferred from one fund to another after six months, and that method was used to buy a budgeted high school building for the street department. Alderman Edmund Bartoski asked for a legal opinion on this, and City
Atty. Filloff said it could be done.

Charles Moellen commented
the sidewalk program was a deadline case, adding that the city could not put new items in the budget.

The aldermen reminded the council that a similar suit was filed about a year ago by Alderman Patton and City Atty.
Rutledge to halt an unbudgeted $5000 purchase of a tract of land to which the city was entitled.
"Things seemed to have changed
now," she remarked.

Proposed Areas
The proposed sidewalk construction, about 12,900 square feet, would be in the vicinity of Old Logan school, Frohardt

Plans For Adult Elementary School In Madison Approved

Plans to conduct an elementary school for adults in the Madison school district have been approved by the Madison Board of Education. The board announced at a meeting of the Madison school board last night.
The special school, to be held in the Dunbar annex at night,
will have a budget totaling $1888
for a 15-week operation to start after the first of the year. Cost of instruction was set at $2431
and building expenses were estimated at $737. The state will bear the expenses.

The school will accommodate 100 persons, all to be selected and assigned by the Illinois Public Aid Commission. The school district will have no role in selecting students, Brown emphasized.

The program will be directed by Wade James Dunbar, principal, and Richard Brown, who will serve as counselor. Six teachers will conduct the classes.
The teachers and the counsellor will be paid $3 an hour, or $10 a night for a two-hour session, and the director will receive $1250 a night.

Achievement Tests
Sessions will be held two nights a week for 18 weeks. The students will be tested to determine their grade assignments.
The program is designed to provide an eighth grade education and the students may then qualify for high school courses conducted in the Venice district which lead to the equivalent of high school diploma.

Plans call for five adults in the first grade, three in the second and seven in the third, to be taught by one teacher; 13 in the fourth grade and five in the fifth, assigned to one teacher; 15
in the sixth grade, 21 in the seventh grade and 29 students in two eighth grade classes.

The school will emphasize reading, writing and arithmetic.
Brown said, and the school is not connected with a work program.
He added that the average cost per student is $37.63. A schedule will be announced later.

The board authorized Brown

Radio Station
Sued By Firm Over
Promotion Scheme

Community Club Awards, a national promotional firm headquartered in New York, has filed an injunction suit in Madison county circuit court against Charles Norman and radio station WGRN seeking to restrain the station from using a promotional campaign similar to one operated here last year.

It also seeks $114,722, which it alleges the radio station owes for last year's promotion, and promises to grow profits from a current campaign being conducted by the station.

The firm claims that the station has violated an agreement entered on Sept. 21, 1962, in which it was not to use a sales promotion campaign the same as or similar to the one provided by CAA for a period of seven years
following expiration of the contract.

The company canceled the contract last Feb. 20, alleging that the radio station had held a franchise to solicit only in the Granite City area, solicitations in St. Louis, an area in which St. Louis radio station Wibb holds a franchise.

Norman today said the difficulty began because Wilb claimed that the Quad-Cities was included in its exclusive CAA jurisdiction and made objections to the promotion firm.

He said CAA canceled the local contract without cause, saying that the station made so-litations in the St. Louis area.
He also alleged that CAA registered a trademark in the name of "The Quad-Cities," and that that similar promotion ideas are used throughout the country."

Norman also said "we are considering a substantial damage suit as CAA informed our adversaries when they were making a legal action" against the station.

As to the amount due the firm, Norman said "we owe them
nothing. They were paid."

25 Yule Recordings Here
The 1963 "Yule Recordings" program—free Christmas recordings made by relatives of area service-men—has been concluded, with 25 Quad-City families participated. It was announced at this week at the Red Cross office.

72 Lights Remain Dark On 'Tree Of Lights'

The "Tree of Lights" campaign for $4500 is $1800, or 72
lights, short of the goal to provide 350 baskets of food along with clothing and toys to needy Quad-City families.

The Salvation Army baskets
are to be packed tomorrow and are to be distributed Saturday.
The baskets will be packed at the Jeff said the campaign will continue until Christmas with bellringers and singing. "We still hope to top the goal," he said.

Salvation Army Capt. Mildred
Walker said over 900 children quests are being handled this year, with churches and organizations taking care of several hundred.

The Salvation Army baskets
will be packed at the recreation hall, 1824 State street tomorrow
by the Eagles Auxiliary.

Weather Boosting Harbor Activity

Early Freeze Reducing River Level; Shipments
Diversified To GC Docks

With the drought and early freeze combining to curtail dock activity elsewhere in this area,
expansion of Granite City harbor facilities "couldn't" have happened at a better time, the Press-Record was told yesterday. Port activity here is booming this week and it is believed likely to continue at an accelerated rate throughout the winter.

Some of the increased shipping volume at the local river terminal is expected to be retained permanently, since the drought, unusual weather and river condition are putting Granite City "on the map" in the minds of prospective port customers. The one or there-ne or dockside water problems

lieved likely to continue at an
accelerated rate throughout the winter.

Christmas Programs Published

Christmas programs to be given by churches of the Quad-Cities appear on pages 28, 29 and 30 of today's issue.

The programs are published in cooperation with the Press-Record in cooperation with the churches.

Cigarettes Stolen
At A&P Market

An undisclosed number of cigarettes of various brands were stolen last night in a break-in at the A&P Market, 1616 Madison avenue. Entrances were gained by forcing the east doorway at the southeast corner of the building.
The thieves also broke into a cigarette storage bin and the dairy storage room door.

Several cases of cigarettes and boxes of soft stockings were left inside the door. The break-in was discovered at 6 a.m. by an employee reporting the loss.

Pool Hall Burglary
A pay telephone and money
and cigarettes from a pool hall
were taken in a burglary
Monday night at the Granite
City pool hall, 1611 State street.
It was reported by Arthur Hill
at 10:25 a.m. Tuesday.

Entry was gained by kicking in the rear door. An attempt was made to break open a candy machine. The top of the cigar machine was taken into a back room where it was broken.

Cash Register Ripped
About $12 in change was taken from a cash register at a service station at 18th and State streets by unknown subjects. It was reported to Granite City police at 1 p.m. Tuesday by John Cell.

Theft of a white and blue 1958
four-door auto off the used car
lot at Madison Motors, 4100 National road, was reported to Granite City police Wednesday
by Robert Maddox.

New Proposal Is To Be Considered By Local 98

A new proposal was developed in negotiations Tuesday night between Granite City school administrators and officers of Building Service Employees' Local 98. It is to be submitted to members of the local.

Al Ward Jr., outgoing business agent, said action is not expected before the next regular meeting of Local 98 Saturday, Jan. 4.
The local represents custodians and cafeteria employees, and new agreements are to be retroactive to last July 1.

County Board Adopts Budget

Record $3,094,430 Is Out Of Balance, Expect
To Stay Out Of "Red"

The Madison county board of supervisors adopted a record-breaking and out-of-balance budget totaling $3,094,430 without a dissenting vote at its monthly meeting yesterday at Edwardsville.

But Leslie Pehr, chairman of the finance committee and county Auditor John Kravay assured the members that the county would not go into the "red" next year. The budget year starts Jan. 1.
Kravay estimated that the county will have an end-of-the-year balance of more than $450, 000 which it can draw upon, and excess fees will be considerably
greater than $1.15 year, especially in the office of county clerk.

The total budget includes $1,
first, $25 for second, $15 for third and $10 for fourth. The $628,370 for general county purposes are based on the amounts spent on decorations $0 to $150 and those costing $150 and above, which will be paid principally through special tax levies.

$25,000 Tax Levy Income other than taxes for general fund will account for all but $25,000, the total amount levied in taxes by the board, but the county clerk can extend only $26,000 because of the county's limited tax rate of 0.58 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The levy is a budget valuation, which is levied on the basis of the county's limited tax rate, which can be met by the county's general fund.

In reviewing the county's financial picture, Pehr said the county's budget for 1964 is $3,094,430, which is $165,395
more than last year, are two elections costs, $170,000 for the 1964 election, and $170,000 for the 1965 election, which are required by law.

He also said the change in the county's budget is the result of considerably higher expenses to the county.

Budget Provisions
Other provisions call for an increase of $18,198 to $141,821 for the county house, $4000 for a salary increase for the county clerk, $10,000 for a new circuit courtroom in the courthouse and $4500 to modify and improve the department.

Funeral homes in the Quad-cities will close at 9 p.m. instead of 10 p.m., effective
Jan. 1, it was announced today.
The change does not affect any other hours of service.

A spokesman said the joint de-

in accord with a trend which has developed elsewhere. Advantages include the expense of
for additional rest by relatives of a deceased individual during the days preceding funeral serv-

Most of those who visit funeral homes have been closing at 9

the spokesman said, custom ap-

reason for remaining open the

Fairmount Sacred Cow Under License Law; Ignores Fees

Non-payment of a $25 annual license by the Fairmount race track to Madison county was disclosed yesterday during the meeting of the Madison county board of supervisors who were adopting a new license ordinance.

Robert Miller of Alton asked why the track should be licensed for only $25 for a 60-day horse racing season while stock car raceways are required to pay a fee of $20 for each day of racing. He claimed that the policy was inconsistent and discriminatory.

Stephen Kennedy of Alton, chairman of the investment and license committee agreed that it was discriminatory, and when asked if the horse track had ever paid the fee, he presented a quick negative reply: "They'll laugh at us," someone smirked.

Board Chairman Harold Landolt interjected a comment—"maybe the stock car races make more money," and attracted a round of laughter.

Sheriff Asks
Kennedy said that the non-payment by Fairmount was called to the attention of the committee only three months ago, or after the close of the last racing season. Kennedy explained that the county board could do nothing about raising the amount of the license because of limitations in state statutes, and he ridiculed any notion that the General Assembly would do anything about it.

Enforce Payment
The committee has been pushing for collection of licenses where applicable, and Robert Gough, a member of the committee, was credited with doing much of the leg work in increasing county revenue through collection of the fees.

There was only one major change in the new license ordinance from one passed in 1965. License fees remain at $25 a year, but racetracks will be required to pay an extra $5 for each unit, not to exceed $300 a year. There were five "no" votes, including Miller's and Webb's.

The licenses cover establishments in unincorporated sections of the county dealing with entertainment, recreation, motion pictures, trailer courts, lodging, golf course and driving trees, riding stables, exhibitions as races and carnivals, bowling alleys, penny arcades, fishing resorts and airports and on coin-operated amusement devices.

All licenses are due and payable as of Jan. 1 of each year, and applications are to be made with the county clerk not later than Jan. 31.

John Pierce, 57, Dies At Home; Ill 5 Months

John R. Pierce, 57, a 35-year Quad-City resident, was found dead in bed at home, 2600 East 24th street, by his wife, Virginia, about 10 a.m. Tuesday. He had been ill with a heart ailment five months and had been under a doctor's care. Deputy Coroner Henry Pieper said he had been dead two to six hours.

Mr. Pierce, a self-employed appliance serviceman, had his shop in his home. He was a native of Belleville and had lived in Madison before moving to Granite City 14 years ago. Other survivors include a son, John, three daughters, Mary Pierce, Mrs. Elroy (Leola) Paschke and Mrs. Chris (Vernest) VonNida, all of Granite City; his father, John Pierce of Madison; a sister, Mrs. Alex (Opal) Lapinski, Granite City; six brothers, Earl of Madison, Joseph and Edward, Granite City; Everett, San Francisco, Calif.; Paul, New York City and Otto of Arizona; and nine grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

monthly pay increases for county employees, and Robert McCormick, president of the county employees union, pledged continued top service to the public.

No formal action was taken on a proposed increase from $150 to $175 a month for patients in the county nursing home.

The board voted to take a two-year lease on office space in the Vanzo building across the street from the courthouse to provide for a new traffic division office. Rental will be $150 per month with an option to renew the lease for two more years.

AP Audit

It was announced that a complete audit is to be made of the records of Granite City Justice of the Peace Harry Hartman as of the first of the year as he is resigning. A report from the county officers' committee showed that he had not made reports for October and November and that fines and costs for September had yet to be turned over to the county.

The board set the 1964 salary of Harry A. Kluge, county highway superintendent, at $16,500 with an additional $1500 for expenses.

A contract to paint nine rooms in the court house was awarded to Carl Coleman of Edwardsville on a sole bid of $1000.

A report was made that George Musso, county treasurer, has not yet invested protected tax funds but that he plans to do so and is studying the best method and timing.

The board voted to close the courthouse on Christmas eve to give employees the day off.

In attendance at the party were E. E. Leggat, Mr. and Mrs. Lamahan, Mrs. Olga McMurry, Mrs. Helen Redfern, Miss Sara Hunt, Mrs. Evelyn Clinton, Miss Janet Dallas, Mrs. Ruth Layman, Mrs. Pat Malotki, Mrs. Doris Thompson, Mrs. Grace Lignoult, Mrs. Ruby Strother, Mrs. Garry Burian, and Mrs. Diane Zarlinga.

Johnson Given Term Of 1-3 Years In State Pen

William Johnson, 18, of 160 Third street, Eagle Park Acres, was sentenced to a term of one to three years in the state penitentiary by Judge Austin Lewis yesterday in circuit court at Edwardsville.

Johnson had pleaded guilty to attempted robbery last Oct. 16 at Sam's Market in Venice. Two other defendants were charged in the same incident. Daniel C. Scott, 36, of St. Louis, was found not guilty by a jury, and an indictment against Lavator Louis, 19, of Eagle Park Acres, Scott's niece, was nolle prossed by the state's attorney's office.

Park District Board Holds Brief Meeting

The Granite City park board district met briefly last night, then enjoyed a turkey dinner with their wives.

The board awarded a bid for fuel oil at the Lincoln Place Community Center to Lindy's Mobileheat for 11.1 cents a gallon. Six sections of fire hose were purchased for $150. The hose will be used to fill the skating rink and to wash off tennis courts.

Francis Takes Petitions

Terry Francis, Granite City attorney, obtained petitions as a Democratic candidate for county attorney yesterday from the office of the county clerk. Petitions also have been sent to Geroff and Mary Hale and a incumbent office holders. They were not circulated because of the mourning period for late President Kennedy.

Horseshoe Lake Ride Ends Up 4 Feet Below

A Granite City man went joyriding on Horseshoe Lake early Monday afternoon. Not by boat, of course, because the lake is frozen. So he went by automobile.

Just one thing was wrong—the lake was frozen, but not solid. And Richard Hicks of Rural Route One, the driver, went down with the car.

Hicks was getting a few kicks driving his brother-in-law's 1963 car over the ice when it hit a weak spot and went through. Luckily, Hicks was not hurt and was able to escape through the car-door window as water filled the vehicle.

The ride started after lunch Monday when Hicks decided he wanted to skid around the lake. He and the brother-in-law, Daniel Rushing, also of Rural Route One, flipped a coin to see whose car Hicks would take.

He drove over the ice once Hicks told the Press-Record, then returned. It was so much fun that he went for a second drive that ended about four feet below the ice some 500 feet from the Horseshoe Lake Boat- ing and Skiing Club.

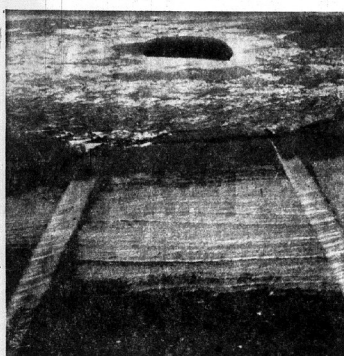

"That was the smoothest ride I ever had," Hicks said of his slide over the ice. "I only hit one bump and it was really a bad one." The car is still encased in the ice where it will remain, probably until spring.

Rushing, who didn't participate in the driving, is looking for a lot of razzing. "I sort of hate to go back to work," he said. Even as he pulled himself out of the freezing water, Hicks kept cackling. He reached back into the car and pulled out the keys. As if anyone would take it.

Christmas Music By Madison School Chorus

A preview of the annual Madison high school Christmas choral program scheduled for 7:30 tonight was given at yesterday's Madison Rotary luncheon by students of MHS and the Louis Baer and Harris grade schools.

Holiday songs were presented by the school choruses and eight soloists. Cindy Zahn, Sandra Williams, Ruth Lomax, Russell Turner, Linda Krpan, Michael Ramach, Jeffrey Eaves and Margaret Champion. A vocal trio, Mary Kay Cohan, Esther White and Della King, entertained and there were organ solos by Bobby Lile. Lile suffered a minor flesh wound to the arm as Allen fell after he had dropped to the floor in the drug store. Allen's home town is Jacksonville, Ala.

TRACKS TO THE BOTTOM. Snow-blown path of auto that went through the ice at Horseshoe Lake. Only the roof of the car peeks through its frozen resting place.

Wounded Soldier Bound Over To Grand Jury

Pfc. Albert E. Allen, 21-year-old Granite Army Depot soldier, who was critically wounded when shot while attempting to rob Lile's drug store on Dec. 2, was bound over to the grand jury today by Police Magistrate Gasparovic.

He waived preliminary hearing with right to reinstate the hearing after obtaining legal counsel. He was charged with attempt to commit armed robbery. Bond was set at $5000, and Allen was returned to the city jail.

The soldier, assigned to the 185th Engineer Co., was released yesterday from Scott Air Force Base Hospital, where he has been a patient since he was shot. He was turned over to Granite City police.

He will continue to require medical attention as a drain in his side has not been removed. He suffered internal injuries as he was shot once in the stomach by Clarence Lyle, 80, proprietor of the drug store. Another bullet pierced his arm, entered his side and lodged near his spine. Lile suffered a minor flesh wound to the arm as Allen fell after he had dropped to the floor in the drug store. Allen's home town is Jacksonville, Ala.

Pollution Solution Possible Monday

A report on location of Granite City's sewage treatment plant may be ready by next week, it was reported to the council Monday night by Alderman Charles W. Moerlein, chairman of the Special Pollution Committee.

Moerlein said the committee met Tuesday with Granite City Army Depot Commander Col. John M. Ansley to determine a site. The depot wants the treatment plant in the vicinity of Chicago avenue on the east side of the depot, while the city wants the site near the city's sewer pumping station.

The location near the pump station would save the city an added cost of constructing sewer lines to connect trunk sewers with the treatment plant. He said it would be necessary to boost the proposed $1,715,000 revenue bond issue for treatment plant construction if the Chicago avenue location is designated.

Moerlein also reported on the committee's meeting with state Sanitary Water Board officials Dec. 6 and the closing of the SWB deadline to January.

to cooperate in a county-wide effort to settle old railroad tax objection cases for a five-year period from 1958 to 1962.

Railroads are eligible to $158,820 of Madison school taxes during the period on the basis of assessments alone. The total figure for the county is $1,413,342, while the total for Granite City district is $253,878 and for the Venice district is $174,872.

Brown said the district superintendents are planning to hire an attorney to settle the protested taxes and to release the funds to the school.

John Gitchoff, school attorney, reported that the Illinois Commerce Commission granted a one-year extension on special rates for dual fuel systems after the Madison district objected to a petition by the Illinois Power Co. to eliminate the special rates after three years. The Madison high school utilizes a dual heating system, and the board now has until 1964-67 to decide on a single system.

Brown and Gitchoff also announced that they will confer with representatives of the Parent-Teacher Association, and an attorney, Marshall Smith of Wood River, at 1:30 p.m. Jan. 14 to try to resolve a misunderstanding in establishing a junior high school PTA.

Labor Council Stresses United Fund Giving

Kenneth Grubb, Alton, executive director of the regional office, Illinois Heart Association, spoke before 43 delegates at last night's meeting of the Tri-City Trades & Labor Council at Labor Temple.

He outlined the national, state and regional programs and campaigns, and was informed the Trades Council prefers giving to just one campaign, the Quad-Cities United Fund, and that funds are available through it for national groups.

Elwin Heiske, president, said the next council meeting will be Jan. 15.

school, Marshall school and St. Elizabeth's school.

Parsons said money was budgeted for sidewalk construction but was spent before the proposed projects were reached. He said two years ago the cost of the sidewalks near Logan school would have cost $408.

Dec. 2 meeting, the council accepted a bid of 51 cents a square foot by Ellsworth Concrete Co. for sidewalk construction.

Alderman Steve Basarich said the alderman was attempting to hold the council up to ridicule." Mrs. Bettine replied she wanted the council to set the example for the community to uphold the law.

Drainage Line Denied

Later in the meeting, a motion to construct a drainage line at Vesel and Spalding avenues failed to receive a majority vote, even though it was pointed out the $1500 for the project was in the budget and that the city "could lose a street if it isn't properly drained."

It was recommended the city consult with the developer of the area to share the cost of the project. Bartosik suggested that if the proposal was turned down, the city could refuse to issue any new building permits to the firm. Atty. Filcic advised the council that this procedure, even though approved by the council in the past, was not proper.

CONTROLLING MICE

Several people have remarked that mice in their homes seem to be more numerous than usual and that they are having some trouble controlling them.

Every year with the first hint of cold weather, homes are invaded by mice. Even in this age of chemical control, traps are the most satisfactory control for these unwelcome visitors, says Glen Sanderson, wildlife specialist with the Illinois Natural History Survey and the University of Illinois.

Traps are inexpensive and easy to place, and the mice can be disposed of so they will leave no odor in the house.

The best bait? It isn't cheese. Peanut butter mixed with a little rancid bacon grease has a fatal attraction for mice. If a mouse doesn't spring the trap, tie a small piece of bacon or a raisin to the trailing wire, with a thread, advises Sanderson.

Around the house, he suggests anticoagulants or red squill-type poisons only if trapping doesn't control the invaders. Some anticoagulants contain an antibacterial agent that keeps rats or mice from building up vitamin K as an antidote. In the past, some mice were resistant to anticoagulants because of the high level of vitamin K produced by bacteria in their digestive tracts.

Outside the house, Sanderson suggests cleaning up and "mouse-proofing" the premises. In outbuildings where odor is not a problem, use poisons, preferably anticoagulants, placed eight to 12 feet apart. Mice travel only short distances. Cover bait stations to protect the poison from rain and pets.

Anticoagulants kill mice and rats with no pain, but they must eat the bait three to 14 days before it will kill them.

MILK PRODUCTION RECORDS

Can one day's production give an indication of the amount of milk a cow will produce during her entire lactation? University of Illinois dairy scientists believe it can.

"A one-day record-keeping plan is accurate enough to spot cows in a herd that are not making a profit for their owners if we know the date the cows calve," explains U. of I. extension dairy specialist Ralph Johnson.

The state-wide Dairy Weigh-Day program is being offered on Jan. 15, 1964. On that day every dairyman in Madison County is asked to weigh the milk produced by each cow in his herd. Dairymen will record the weights on Dairy Weigh-Day sheets they receive in the mail and mail the forms to the farm advisers' office.

After we receive the Dairy Weigh-Day sheets from cooperating dairymen, we will forward them to the U. of I. Dairy Extension Office, where dairy specialists will calculate a 10-month milk record for each cow.

The sheets will be returned to the adviser's office and then forwarded to cooperating dairymen along with information interpreting results of the program.

A host of Illinois agricultural agencies are joining U. of I. dairy specialists in this campaign to eliminate "profit-taking" cows from the Illinois dairy scene.

Madison county dairymen will be receiving further information about the program through the mail. They will also receive the page forms needed to record production from each cow in their herds for one day.

From 75 to 80% of the cattle herds in the state have some lice. Don't let them build up in your herd until they reduce your beef gains or cut milk production.

A serious infestation of lice only adds to the stress conditions created by winter weather.

Lice overwinter on the animal but don't start increasing until fall and early winter. Uncontrolled, they can build up large numbers fast in December to become a real problem in January and February. They can lower the vitality of an animal during the coldest part of the winter when good health is crucial.

For controlling lice in dairy cattle, use clove, a new chemical, or the old starchy rotenone. Both are approved for milking cows and for calves four months or older when applied properly.

For beef cattle use lindane or malathion.

You'll control lice best by spraying one to two gallons per animal, thorough head-to-tail coverage is important. For better wetting, add a few drops of detergent per 100 gallons of water.

For more details on lice control, stop at the county extension office.

SNOW PROTECTS WHEAT

Before the recent cold weather, it appeared that the snow might soak into the ground when it thaws and help soil moisture conditions, but now the ground is frozen too hard to absorb much moisture and how much

FREEMAN BROS. AFTER CHRISTMAS

A Sale With a Reason...
Not Just an Excuse!
WHAT IS A BARGAIN?

You, the homemaker, are constantly besieged with advertisements of merchandise called bargains at prices reduced from much higher "list prices." Many of the values are authentic; some, possibly, are not.

However, no one can offer a legitimate bargain unless they have a legitimate reason for doing so. Freeman Bros. has such a reason for offering values far beyond the usual! The last six months have been among the busiest in our history. Business has been good; it has been so good that we have reached our profit quota for the year. Most of anything else we make now would be paid out in taxes.

Therefore we've slashed prices throughout the store with only 3 things in mind:

1. Show our appreciation to our customers and friends in the Quad-City area by offering them an opportunity to buy all their Christmas gifts at "After Christmas" prices.

2. Reduce the overstock now instead of waiting 'til after Christmas.

3. Open up 500 new accounts before the end of the year.

Therefore all merchandise will be marked down as much as 30% to 60% just as if it were after Christmas but you can still have it delivered in time to give as a Christmas gift.

Farm Column

snow-water will soak in is problematical. Anyhow, the blanket of snow has been protecting the wheat.
It appears now that 1963 may end with a deficiency of about eight inches below the normal average precipitation for the year. The prolonged period of inadequate moisture started over most of Illinois and Missouri in November of 1962. Spring rains helped in most of the two-state area, but since early summer the weather has been dry enough to cause drought conditions, especially in southern Illinois and Missouri.
There seems to be no clear-cut definition for a drought. In fact, even the spelling and pronunciation are not consistent, points out William L. Denmark, Illinois state climatologist. Some people say drought, to rhyme with out, others say drought means lack of moisture. To some it means lack of adequate soil moisture for growing plants, to others it is a lack of surface water in streams and lakes to provide for navigation, urban consumption, stock watering or irrigation. Even those with the same interest do not always agree as to when a dry period means a drought. If a drought, people will agree that we have had a drought and the situation is serious.
This is the period when the ground should be storing water for 1964 crops, which is the most alarming aspect of the situation. The area about 50 to 100 miles southeast of here is reported to be about the driest hit section of the state. Previously such an extremely dry period has occurred in that area only about once in fifty years.

Assumption Rallies To Edge Red Devils

Assumption's Pioneers, stymied by the Venice Red Devils for three and a half quarters last night, rallied and won the semi-final round game of the Highland St. Paul Tournament 51-41.

The loss knocked the Red Devils into the third place game at 7:45 p.m. Saturday against the loser of tonight's Livingston-St. Paul battle. The Pioneers will take on the winner of that game for the championship.

"We played as well as we knew how," said Coach Bill Ohlendorf, who employed only five players in the game. Venice had held a slim lead throughout the contest.

The Devils led 21-19 at the half and 33-32 after three quarters. But the tattered Pioneers tied the score at 38-38 and then took the lead.

Down To Wire

The final score doesn't indicate the closeness of the final minute of play. With only 45 seconds left, Assumption had a tight 45-41 edge.

Then the Devils tried a long pass down-court, but it was intercepted. Assumption drew a foul, and two successful conversions killed off Venice hopes.

Dan Talbert, 6-5 Assumption star who had a 24-point average, was held to 14 points. Terry Florek also scored 14, with Bartlett.

Madison Meets Triad Tomorrow Night After Conference Victory Over Dupo

Madison's Trojans play host to the tough Triad Knights in high school basketball tomorrow night. The varsity contest will follow the 6:30 junior varsity preliminary.

The game will serve as a tune-up for the Trojans, who will participate in the annual East St. Louis Holiday Tournament which opens next Thursday. But according to Coach Earl McClanahan, it won't be a breeze.

"I saw them last Friday," he said. "And they can do about everything well. They move fast and have a good defense." Triad defeated Bethalto 72-58 in that contest.

On the season, the Knights have a 3-1 record. The only loss came Tuesday night in the finals of the Collinsville Tournament when the host team, ranked No. 1 in the state, thundered to a 75-45 triumph.

McClanahan tabbed veteran Dave Wells as the Knights' chief scoring threat. The 5-11 senior averaged 18.8 points a game last season.

The Trojans took over first place in the young Midwestern Conference season Tuesday night with 90-75 victory over the Tigers at Dupo. The team sailed to a 44-22 halftime lead.

A major accomplishment of the evening was containing 6-7 Gary Cook of the Tigers, who was held to six points in the first half. He ended up with 20 markers but most of those were against Madison's reserves in the late stages.

Top scorers for Madison were way with 19 points. In other games, Tri-Way Village topped Branding's 42-39, and Lincoln Place stopped Olga's Confectionery 51-32.

Charles Stephens led the sharp-shooting guard Dale Turner, who totaled 25 and Cecil Smith, who scored 20 points.

Madison pressed throughout the contest and Dupo was forced to make bad passes frequently. The Tigers threw the ball away seven times in the second quarter alone.

The score shot up with a run-and-run fourth quarter in which both teams scored 30 points. The score was just 60-45 after three quarters.

In the junior varsity contest, Dupo took a 59-57 victory, Madison leads the conference with a 2-0 mark, followed by Bethalto and Highland, both 1-0. Overall, the Trojans are 4-2.

Woman Files Charge, Pays Husband's Fine

Charges of aggravated assault against three men, including her husband, by Mrs. Shirley Fairfield, were reduced prior to hearings before Police Magistrate Gasparovic yesterday morning.

Magistrate Gasparovic and Assistant State's Atty. Joseph Bartylak said Mrs. Fairfield wanted to withdraw the charges. She paid her husband's $25 fine.

The charges were filed Tuesday against Teddy L. Kolfel, 25, of 2064 Iowa street; Billy Hayes, 20, of 1228 Meridian street; and Fred Fairfield, 29, of 3805 Kirkpatrick Homes. Mrs. Fairfield said she was beaten in an automobile.

Kolfel and Hayes pleaded guilty yesterday to a reduced charge of disorderly conduct. Their $25 fines were stayed on the recommendation of Bartylak.

Fairfield pleaded guilty to battery and received a six-month jail sentence which was suspended in favor of a year's probation and the $25 fine.

Faces Conduct Charge

Carl Wortham, 21, of 2225 State street was arrested Tuesday afternoon in the 2500 block of Sheridan avenue on a charge of disorderly conduct. He was released on $16 cash bail.

YULE PARTY FOR SENIOR SCOUTS

Senior Girl Scout Troop 224, sponsored by the Nameoki Presbyterian Church, held its annual Christmas party Sunday evening in the home of Miss Charlotte Weiss, 3723 Nameoki road.

Games were played and a Christmas gift exchange was enjoyed by the members. Patrol One, Nancy Benson, Marilyn Bondegard, Lauren Siegle and Sodoma Brister, were in charge of the games.

The basement was decorated in traditional holiday style with a small decorated evergreen tree and a fire blazing in the fireplace. The girls in Patrol Two, responsible for the decorations, included Janet Lane, Marie Burzese, Debbie Lyle and Charlotte Weiss.

Refreshments were served to the girls.

Liquor Bonds Ok'd For 4 GC Taverns

Liquor bond renewals for four Granite City taverns were approved by council members Monday night, but not until after Alderman Samuel Whitmer called for strict enforcement of the city's control ordinance. It was pointed out that compliance by individual tavernkeepers to the city regulations was to be determined at the time of the renewal of the $2000 bonds.

Deputy liquor commissioner, Alderman Edmund Tortosik, said all of the licenses had been approved before he became the deputy.

Whitmer replied that he would ask the liquor commissioner, Mayor Davis, and the deputy to confirm compliance at the time city licenses are sought. "I'll ask it publicly so there won't be any question as to where the responsibility lies," Whitmer commented.

He explained that he had heard of licenses being given to individuals who did not comply with the control ordinance as to residence or character.

Three of the four bond renewals approved Monday night were signed by individuals, while the bond for Pete Murgie's tavern, 2409 Lincoln avenue, was furnished by a bonding firm.

The others approved were for Barbara Jannett's West Side tavern, 1034 West 20th street, signed by Vance Reznack and Roy Jarrett; Victor Reznack's Victor's tavern, 2001 Illinois avenue, signed by Andrew and Vance Reznack; and Samuel Nicholson's Sammie's tavern, 921 Niedringhaus avenue, signed by Rahan Montecian and Aslan Kachigian.

GC, Madison Squads In Holiday Tournaments

Santa isn't the only indication of the Christmas holiday season. There are annual athletic tournaments, too.

This year, there are three Quad-City high school teams which will engage in holiday sports fare. They are the Granite City basketball and wrestling teams and the Madison cage squad.

Granite City's basketball team makes the longest trip—almost 200 miles to the 33rd annual Pontiac Holiday Tournament Dec. 26-28 at that northern city's National Guard Armory.

The Warriors meet Richmond in the eighth and final first-round game at 10 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 26. A win would mean the Warriors will play at 8:30 p.m. Friday; a loss would mean a game at 10 p.m. Friday in the double-bracketed tourney.

Other teams entered are Lincoln, Arlington, Lockport, Washington, Waukegan, Streator, Pekin, Princeton, Sterling, Bloomington, Bloom, Alton, Pontiac and Springfield. Lockport won last year and Granite City took the consolation title.

Wrestlers Defend Title
Granite City's wrestlers will stay at home to be hosts to their third annual, not their first. They won the first two tournaments.

Central 8th Graders Capture 8th Victory

Central's Indians captured their eighth win against one less in eighth grade basketball competition 55-25 Monday night over St. Elizabeth at Prather junior high school's gymnasium. Spearheading Central's attack were Jeff Jones with 14 points, Norm Hall 13, Mike Duchow 12 and Bill Yarborough 10. Central raced to a 31-9 halftime lead.

Central also won the seventh grade contest 44-12, as Dennis Campbell (12 points) and Dan Hodge (10) led the scoring. The young Indians had a 28-6 half-time lead.

FORMER GRANITE CITY high school star Ron Hall is currently a deep defensive back for the Boston Patriots in the American Football League. Hall, 25, was chosen all-conference in both his junior and senior years at Missouri Valley College—6 feet duplicated this year by his brother, Dwain Hall. Ron held a starting safetyman berth with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1959 and 1960.

He tried out with the Patriots in 1961 and was cut from the squad but rejoined the club shortly after Mike Halovak took over as head coach. He filled in at deep back that season and won the starting role he now occupies at training camp last year. During his college days, Ron was also a track standout in the dash and broad jump events.

Air Mail Advantages

Sending Greeting Cards Old Custom--Postmaster

The Granite City post office will handle more Christmas cards this year than ever before, Postmaster Theodore Overbeck predicted today while reflecting on the history of the holiday card and the current-day mail bargains. Speaking of bargains, Overbeck says he has a real buy, two-thirds cheaper and thousands of times better than it was more than 45 years ago. The bargain is airmail, "and it can be a real buy for late Christmas cards," he said. The local post office cannot maintain a count on Christmas cards because there is no way of telling which envelopes contain cards, but the greeting card industry estimates several billion will be mailed this year during the holiday season. Based on research by the National Greeting Card Association, the postmaster gave this account of the background and development of the cards:

Six Billion Cards
"Today, the greeting card industry estimates six billion greeting cards for occasions are mailed annually in the United States. Statistically, this is estimated at about 110 Christmas cards per family on the average each year. "We often think of the custom of sending cards as modern, but the origins of the greeting card can be traced back thousands of years. "The earliest known holiday greeting was printed from a crude woodcut about 1450 in Germany. It shows the Christ child standing in the bow of an ancient galley manned by angels with the Holy Mother seated by the mast. "History reveals people have always had a desire to communicate on a sentimental and emotional basis. For example, the ancient Egyptians conveyed greetings with papyrus scrolls. "In the Dark Ages, the exchange of symbols—gloves, garters and bows—was regarded as a form of sentimental communication. "The modern custom of sending greeting cards can be traced back through the centuries to the Chinese who celebrated the advent of the New Year with messages of good will. "The first-known published Christmas card made its appearance in London, England, in 1843. It was designed by John Calcott Horsley, British painter and illustrator of the period. "In 1846, 1000 copies were lithographed, hand-colored and sold by an art shop. "It is surprising how similar this first card more than a century ago was to many today. Small panels to the left and right show the charitable acts of 'clothing the poor' and 'feeding the hungry,' always connected with the Christmas season.

1st American Card
"The date of the first American Christmas card is not known, but an American authority on greeting cards, Ernest Dudley Chase of Boston, found what he believed to be the first. "Authorities say there can be no question on but that his discovery, a card which extends 'A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year' from 'Pease's Great Variety Store' is a very early card. Chase believes it to be the earliest known American card. Concerning airmail, Overbeck said that when it first came into use, it was introduced in America May 15, 1918, 8600 letters were sent by airmail from New York City about 200 miles, at a minimum cost of 24 cents a letter. "Today," he said, "more than 1½ billion letters and post cards are sent by air mail annually within the United States. Instead of the two flights a day in 1918 (one from New York to Washington and the other a return trip) air mail is offered 10,000 flights daily now throughout the nation. "Air Mail Advantages Next-day delivery is not at all uncommon for airmail from St. Louis, to points 1000 to 2000 miles or more away, he said. "Late cards sent from Granite City by airmail can reach Los Angeles, Calif., the next day, he pointed out. At the same time, he urged patrons to make their mail deposits now to avoid any chance of late delivery, especially for out-of-town mail. Another good emergency mailing measure—if you mail late despite the postmaster's warning, is air parcel post, which moves at the same speed as airmail letters. "The cost of air parcel post is surprisingly modest, Overbeck said. Sending parcels weighing more than a pound by air is frequently cheaper than using first class postage. "Old, Honored Tradition
Noting that he occasionally hears grumbles that Christmas cards are just a "troublesome new-fangled custom," the postmaster added, "we can see that sending cards is a very old and honored tradition. "Actually, I believe most of the complaining comes largely from those who wait until the last minute to get the cards and then try to remember the names and addresses of those to whom they should send them. "Sending cards can be a pleasure after a little preparation—having a good mailing list and mailing promptly with ZIP Code on every card."

THE OLD STATE CAPITOL at Vandalia, built in 1836. It was vacated by the state when the capital was moved to Springfield. Lincoln served in the building as a legislator from New Salem.

Vandalia State House

John W. Allen

Southern Illinois University
When Illinois University was established in 1809, Kaskaskia was designated as the territorial capital. When the territory became a state in 1818, Kaskaskia in turn became its first capital. Leaders recognized the fact that Kaskaskia was not suitable as a permanent capital.

It was too far from the center of the state and was subject to river floods. Even then the shifting channel of the Mississippi was seen as a threat. Kaskaskia was a decaying village, long past those days when it was the Metropolis of the Mississippi Valley. A new capital city must be chosen.

When the first General Assembly of the new state met in 1819, it set about the task of selecting a new seat of government for the state and the erection of a necessary capital building where the legislature could meet in 1821.

Commissioners were appointed from different sections of the state and directed to select a site, lay off a town, name it, sell lots and to build a house for use of the state. All this was to be done within two years. It was to remain the seat of state government for 20 years, with many hoping that it would be the permanent site.

The commissioners were told that the site chosen should be on the Kaskaskia River; east of and as near the third principal bend as was advisable. The commission promptly went to the region indicated to make a spot inspection. Records seem to indicate that they enjoyed their mission reasonably well.

Deer Figure in Selection
According to an oft repeated story, the time for deciding just where they figuratively would drive down a staff and say "this is the spot" came at a nighttime after one of the party had shot a deer beneath a large white oak tree and all had feasted on the resulting venison steaks broiled over an open fire. It was decided definitely that the capital building would be located on the spot where the tree stood. Plans went forward accordingly. True or not, true, it is a good story.

This method of locating the capital of a new state was somewhat unique. Generally some town already in existence is chosen. In this case there was no established town within miles. The site was in a deep woodland and no road led past it. The National Government had pledged to give to the state four sections of land about the chosen location and did so. Within a short time surveyors were employed, the town was laid out and lots were ready for sale.

Named After Indian Tribe
The commissioners then turned their attention to selecting a name for the new town. The account of how this was done also is interesting. After a bit of parleying it is said that one of the commissioners, perhaps with a bit of sly humor, suggested that it be called Vandalia after the Vandals, "a noble tribe of Indians" that once had lived nearby. However, it may have come about, Vandalia was selected for the town's name. True or not it also makes a good story.

Within a short time a contract was awarded for the building of a house to serve as the state's capital. This first capitol was 40 feet long, 30 feet wide and two stories high. It was a wooden building that cost the state $472. Lots were sold to pay the cost. To this building Sidney Breeze brought the entire records from Kaskaskia in a wagon, at a total cost of $125. This first capital and the state's record burned in the fire's morning of Dec. 9, 1825.

The people of Vandalia built a second capitol of brick in the summer of 1824 at a cost of $45,000. This second one served until the present "Old Capital Building" was constructed in 1858.

Many of the states historic events centered in early Vandalia and about this third capitol building. The names of Lincoln, Douglas and a dozen other prominent men are associated with the town. James Hall lived here and wrote extensively about earlier years in the region. The magazine he published here was the first in Illinois. Six of the state's earlier governors lived and served here. Reading the names carved on the markers in the city cemetery brings to mind many a story of earlier Illinois.

First Protestant Church Bell
The bell in the Presbyterian church is the first one in a Protestant church in Illinois. It was given to the church by Romulus Riggs and his wife, Mary Ann, in the name of their daughter, Illinois Riggs. It was hung and announced its presence on Nov. 5, 1880.

There are other interesting landmarks in the town. An impressive statue, "The Matron of the Trail," stands on the corner across from the Old State House. It was placed there to mark the end of the National Trail, or Cumberland Road, that extended from the town of Cumberland on the Potomac River to Vandalia. Over this roadway a million people went their way to the West. It remains one of history's great roadways.

One can well turn aside, or better still, go on purpose to Vandalia and visit the historic places it has. The past of Illinois becomes more real.

Cab Backs, Hits Car

A Checker taxicab parked at the Washington school on West 20th street at 3:20 p.m. Monday suddenly backed up and struck the front of an auto owned by Vincine S. Zerlan, 43, of 1648 Spruce street. The driver of the cab, identified only as Collins, 35, told police he accidentally hit his gear shift, knocking it in reverse.

Members of the bomb disposal squad at the Granite City Army Depot appeared at Granite City high school Monday afternoon following a crank call, apparently by a youth, to the depot switchboard operator. There was no evacuation of the building.

Vandalia Damage Auto

Clyde Bahr, 2960 Myrtle avenue, complained to Granite City police at 12:45 p.m. Monday that vandals broke his coil, distributor cap, and three spark plug wires and loosened the battery cable on his 1957 auto while it was parked at East 20th street and Lee avenue.

Turns Into Drive, Hit

Making a right turn into his driveway, a car driven by Robert D. Gwin, 48, of 2633 Adams street, was struck in the rear by an auto operated by Edmy Canada, 17, of 1738 Poplar street, at 5:13 p.m. Monday. Both autos were damaged at the point of impact.

Legislators May Be Delegates To Choose House Candidates

Disgusted over the failure to reappoint Illinois House districts, State Rep. Lloyd "Curly" Harris of Granite City expects some attempt to ease the problem at a special legislative session Jan. 6.

But he is fearful that what will be devised might later be thrown out as unconstitutional. Possible procedures are still being explored and will be discussed further at a Republican caucus in Springfield today and a Democratic meeting of legislators, county chairmen and state central committee men Dec. 30.

Long Ballot Certain

The veteran state representative told the Press-Record yesterday that statewide voting on all House seats next November appears to be inevitable. Possibility of each party lim-ing its candidates, possibly to 65 or 118, is being considered to avoid the prospect of one or the other party being entirely shut out by an election sweep.

A plan receiving major attention is to have present House members listed on a ballot in the April primary election as convention delegates. These delegates then would meet in district to select party candidates to name House candidates.

No Direct Voice In Nominations
It appears that the public will have no direct voice in who is nominated to run in November, Harris said.

The exact mechanics have not yet been worked out and he said he hopes that the legislature will move slowly and surely to avoid illegality. "We've got to have a legislature, and we don't want to have it thrown out—resulting in creation of out if somebody files a suit," he commented.

Deaths and retirements will make it necessary to choose some new candidates, and it appears that this will be up to the two parties, either in district or state meetings, Harris related. "Just how many other candidates would be kept out, I don't know," he added.

No Cumulative Voting

There have been fears that 1000 or more would file and, at best, the counting of the representative ballots is likely to be a long and laborious task.

To ease the situation, plans call for a separate paper ballot, longer polling place hours and elimination of cumulative voting. In the past, House candidates could be given one, one-and-a-half or three votes.

Harris said he conferred in Springfield Tuesday with Speaker of the House John Lewis, a Republican, Democratic Minority Leader Paul Powell and other officials.

Should the reapportionment be voted by the legislature and then vetoed—resulting in creation of

GC Alderman Suggests 'Watchdog' Committee

A suggestion for Mayor Davis to appoint a committee of three citizens to study Bi-State Development Agency activities pertaining to Illinois was proposed in a report presented to Granite City aldermen by Fourth Ward Alderman Donald Partney.

The report was not read to the council, but was mentioned. No action was taken. Partney asked the aldermen to study the report, which he had mailed to them individually, before taking any action.

Partney entitled his 24-page typewritten report "Bi-State Development Agency versus East Side Levee Board."

Exempt From Taxes

The alderman points out that all holdings of the Bi-State Agency are tax exempt and that the city is losing over $2000 per year in taxes that had been paid by Community Coach Co.

He advised the aldermen to be watchful of the agency because the law firm that represents it has political connections in Missouri, and that the agency now is seeking to be the coordinator of regional planning in the two-state area.

Partney outlined the powers and duties of the Bi-State Agency in two categories—"First, it may own and operate certain types of public works projects. Second, it may make studies and plans for the coordinated development of the Bi-State area."

Partney explained the Bi-State Pact creates the area to include Illinois counties of Madison, St. Clair and Monroe and Missouri counties of St. Louis, St. Charles and Jefferson and the city of St. Louis—3567 square miles, with 225 municipalities, 750 local taxing districts and an estimated population of 2,075,000.

Partney prefaced his study with the statement that Illinois has seen and felt the power and political pressure of the East Side Levee board for the past 30 years, and stated — "The Bi-State Agency was organized to provide for the development of the St. Louis area with powers and capabilities similar to those of the Port of New York Authority."

He reviewed the agency's development of the Granite City wharf on the Chain of Rocks canal. This project was offered to the city of Granite City by the Granite City Steel Co. but was turned down," Partney said.

He then reviewed the formation of the Bi-State Transit System and the increase in fares. However, no mention was made of standardization of salaries for employees. He pointed out the agency consolidated the 15 bus firms, several of which were losing money, "to provide better service at a cheaper fare. Yet, in the case of Granite City, a tax paying business was taken out of the picture and the fares for Granite City have been increased 66 2/3%."

He questioned Interstate Commerce Commission controls.

"I wonder," the alderman stated, "what procedures or safeguards have been established by the Bi-State that would prevent Transit Service Corp., a Missouri company formed by key officials of the St. Louis Public Service Co., from subsidizing bus travel to one trade area, such as downtown St. Louis."

Protestant Welfare Needs Clothing For Children

Protestant Welfare Agency is in need of clothing for children, it was reported during a meeting of the board Tuesday evening at the First United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Marie Whittle, secretary, said the demand for children's clothing is so great that none can be kept in stock. "We're anxious about clothing for adults, but have none for children," she said.

The meeting, attended by 32 members, also included a report that assistance was given to two families who had lost clothing and furnishings in house fires. They were given clothing and bedding.

The monthly report of the United Fund agency showed there were 19 cases involving 72 persons, including nine new cases, three recurrent and seven of incidental nature. Referrals were made by local residents, the Red Cross, an assistant state's attorney, the Granite City township relief office and ministers.

The agency issued 29 orders amounting to $390, including $186 for food, $12 for medical care, $71 for rent, $116 for new shoes and clothing and $5 miscellaneous expenses.

Also distributed were 20 orders for clothing and shoes from the store room, valued at $133, and furniture and household articles amounting to about $201.

GC To Ban Parking At Benton-Fehling Curve

A ban on parking at the Benton street-Fehling road curve, where four-lane Fehling road narrows to two lanes was proposed Monday night by Granite City council members.

Originally it was suggested the ban be set only while the ice skating rink is in operation, but the council stressed the need to eliminate the hazard the year-round.

An ordinance is to be prepared for presentation at next week's council meeting.

Other Traffic Problems
Other traffic problems were discussed by the council, including a request for a study of a need for a school crossing guard at 29th street and Madison avenue, enforcement of a no-parking zone at 3015 Nameoki road in front of Brandings service station, a renewed study of traffic-pedestrian safety at the 20th-Nash street gate at Granite City Steel Co. and approval of a no-parking zone on the north side of 26th street between Grand avenue and State street in front of the Third Baptist Church and its parking lot.

An ordinance to place a stop sign at 17th street and Grand avenue, requested by Lindley Trucking Co., was withdrawn.

when it was brought out the Street committee did not see a need for the sign or for sidewalk repairs requested by the firm. The company's request for a no-parking zone on 17th street still is under consideration.

Parents Pay Watchers
Alderwoman Gabrielle Bettine said parents of Niedringhaus school youngsters have been paying older boys to watch the crossing at 26th street and Madison avenue. Her request for employment of a $6-a-day crossing guard study was received.

She also asked traffic on Benton street be checked by police to determine if there are violations of truck load limits. Further consideration is to be given requests for safety precautions at the mill gate, 29th and Nash streets. Meetings are being held with the city council, unions, plant officials and state highway department officials participating. A further report is to be presented to the council when a method agreeable to all parties is found.

Unions are seeking a pedestrian activated traffic signal, while the state has not yet agreed to this. A mill employee was killed there earlier this year.

10 To Go To Conference
Permission was granted for 10 policemen, to be named by Chief Willard, to attend Saturday's traffic conference to be held at Collinsville's North Junior high school to explain the new traffic law procedures which will become effective Jan. 1 under the new judicial code. They were allotted a total of $35 for meals at the 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. conference.

Referred to the Street committee was a letter from the state highway department turning down the city's October request for an arterial street designation for a section of Johnson road which is outside the city limits.

The city is seeking the use of motor fuel tax funds to maintain the street. The state pointed out Franklin avenue and Lindell blvd. could provide the necessary routing.

Street Chairman G. H. Sternberg pointed out he and the committee should confer directly with state highway officials "who apparently are confused on the street locations." Sternberg added that under the MFT code the city should be able to secure the funds for proper maintenance, even though the roadway is outside the city limits for a short distance.

A total of 4800 cans has been collected so far. Further contributions are still being accepted in hopes of reaching the goal of 5000.

Winter Driving Safety Steps Given To Prevent Accidents

In winter weather driving it is the sudden skid and inability to see out of windshields plastered with snow and road-muck that often maims or kills the unprepared driver and his passengers.

This is the hazard which can easily be corrected, the Quaker City Safety Council points out. Tests conducted each year show that many motorists have accidents simply because they neglect equipment.

Here are suggestions for safe operation in snow, ice, freezing weather and fog made by the Safety Council.

Sinking Street, Lift Station Warnings, Driver Safety, Absenteeism—City Topics

Responsibility for a depression in the street pavement in the 2500 block of Lynch avenue is to be sought by the city to determine if a contractor for the city is liable for repairs.

Attention to the settling of the pavement was given by Eighth Ward Alderman Ford Johnson, and it was inspected by Street committee chairman G. H. Sternberg. He reported to the council Monday night the "dip" probably resulted from settling at a sewer line installation and there is no indication of a break.

He called upon Street Supt. William Warfield to confer with the project engineer, and for a responsibility report to be submitted to the council.

Lift Station Warning System
Sternberg reported a revised proposal has been received for installation of breakdown warning devices for the city's sewer lift stations. It was approved by the Potter Co., St. Louis, in the amount of $4668, compared to the firm's initial proposal of several months ago amounting to $4800.

The bid was referred to the Street committee for study. Plans for the system were revamped after the initial proposals were received last spring. The system is to prevent stoppages and backflows which have caused sewage to pour into home basements and onto streets.

Safety For City Drivers
With presentation of bids to repair a privately-owned auto damaged Nov. 26 by a city vehicle, Alderman Samuel Whitcomb called for development of a safety program for the drivers of city vehicles.

Whitcomb asked the mayor to send letters to each department calling for the drivers to exercise caution in the operation of city equipment, not only to prevent damage to the city's equipment but also to other persons' property.

He pointed out the city has been averaging in recent months a claim a month for such damage. The bids received Monday night for repairs to the auto of Josephine Mott, 2648 Lincoln avenue, were $59 by 18th Street Garage and $88 by Andy & Johnny's Auto Body Shop. The contract was awarded to Andy & Johnny's.

Bids for a typewriter for the City Planning & Zoning and Inspection offices were approved and were referred to the City Hall committee. The bids were $201 and $207 as submitted by Graham's Book store and $220 by Triangle Typewriter & Office Supply Co.

City Hall Remodeling
Alderman Casmer Slabish, chairman of the City Hall committee, reported the committee is considering the remodeling of the first floor to utilize the large lobby for office space for the police department. He said the project probably would be carried out over a period of one or two years.

The availability of funds for immediate painting of the two cell blocks and repairing showers and electrical circuits in the jail sections is to be determined prior to a call for bids. Council members also reviewed an aldermanic attendance report compiled by City Clerk A. L. Stevens. Several discrepancies were noted, and Alderman Clyde Bord called for notations to be included on the report when an alderman gives notice in advance he will be unable to attend because of a valid reason. He suggested the reasons also be listed on the report.

Mayor Davis said that in the future such records will be kept. The report on absenteeism was requested in connection with a new ordinance that an alderman is not to be paid his $25 meeting fee unless he has a proper excuse, such as illness or death in his immediate family or is working a shift in conflict with a meeting date. Each alderman is permitted two absences by state law before he will begin losing the $25 meeting pay.

PILING UP—READY TO GO are hundreds of Christmas gifts parcels flowing through the Granite City post office. The rate of receipt of parcels both arriving at the

Long Debate By GC Council Over Items On $36,500 List

A $36,557 bill list brought forth a half-hour debating session by Granite City Council members over the legality of having the sewer election brochures printed, accumulated and expense pay for aldermen and engineering costs.

Separations were called for, but none was recognized, and the bill list was approved. In addition, the city paid $3000 to settle a workmen's compensation claim filed by Otis Lockley and a $900 accident claim. The last two payments were recommended by City Atty. George Fliedt.

Alderman Walter Norn, who called for non-payment of $289 to Tri-City Printing Co. for 15,000 brochures for the Nov. 20 special sewer bond issue election, was dropped down by G. H. Sternberg, who pointed out Norn was in error in his statement on the ownership of the printing firm.

Criticizes Newspaper
Norn criticized the Press-Record for its editorial concerning the legality of such an expenditure. "Maybe Mr. Townsend should cancel the bill since he thinks it illegal and he owns the printing company."

Sternberg informed him of the separate ownership of the printing firm and the newspaper's right to its own opinion. Norn called for City Atty. Fliedt to reaffirm his opinion which authorized the printing of the brochure. Fliedt said the expenditure for the brochure was proper.

Challenges Aldermen's Item
Norn also challenged Sternberg's $68.90 expense allowance, saying aldermen were limited to $30 a month. Sternberg immediately called for a separation of his item to remove it from the bill list. His request was turned down by the council.

He explained that it was to cover three months and included such items as "out-of-pocket expense" involved in the distribution of the sewer bond issue brochures in his ward, meals for election judges at his precinct and a set of 1963 Illinois revised statutes.

In question was raised on whether aldermen could accumulate their $30 monthly expense allowances. City Atty. Fliedt said he would look into it. In other bill lists, aldermen have been paid two months' expenses at one time.

Engineering Bill
The $6834 bill from David J. Johnston for engineering services on the project for widening Nacmole road and West Pontion road was questioned by Sternberg, who called for a separation of the amount until a breakdown was submitted.

A. W. Pearson, representing Johnston, left momentarily and returned with a breakdown. Sternberg withdrew his request, saying the breakdown was adequate. Pearson said it was the final bill for the project and it had been approved by the state highway department.

In addition, Johnston was paid his monthly retainer of $416 for engineering services to the city in November.

The $36,557 bill list also included $1257 for fuel, maintenance and parts for city equipment; and $1324 was paid for materials for the street department.

Street Department Materials
The street items included $189 paid to Standard Oil Co. for 12½ tons of asphalt; $269 paid to Mc-Clair Asphalt Co. for 31½ tons of cold mix; $150 paid to Ferro Processing Co. for 75 cubic yards of screened slag; $326 paid to A. H. Seebold Co. for 23 cubic yards of concrete and $88 paid to Lybarger Co. for concrete and for rental of a tract at Niedringhaus avenue and Adams street where the city stores salt and cinders.

Other items on the bill list included—

A payment of $6471 to B. E. Hohl, Inc. for two new dump trucks for the street department; $85 to Marx Kunkel to enclose the stairway to the roof at the city hall; $2396 as the city's share of the Illinois Municipal Retirement fund; $100 to Postmaster W. T. Overbeck for 2000 first-class postage stamps; $3500 final payment to A. H. Seebold for work on the State street track removal and resurfacing; motor fuel tax protest.

A payment of $71 to Nelson Electrical Contracting Co. to hang lights on the city's Christmas tree and 72 light bulbs; $4396 to Tom Skierle Co. for roof and gutter removal and replacement and sidewalk removal and replacement.

Other expense allowances approved were $25 to Alderman Donald Partney for a set of 1963 Illinois revised statutes; $25 to Alderman Earl Thompson, also for a set of statutes and $100 for Civil Defense Director Victor Koening.

36 To Take GC Police Dept. Exam Tomorrow

Thirty-six Granite Cityans are seeking the vacant patrolman position on the police department and will take an examination at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the basement of the Ellis Club.

William Brookes, secretary of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, said the exam also will be used to set up an eligibility list in the event the city council authorizes additional patrolmen for the department. The vacancy was created Dec. 1 by the retirement of Chief of Detectives James R. Lowder.

The Quad-Cities area, which has no draft quota for December, will send 10 men to the armed forces on Jan. 31. It was reported this week by the county selective service office at Edwardsville.

In addition, 57 Quad-City youths are to report Jan. 10 for pre-induction physical examinations. Draft quotas for the county next month are 15 Edwardsville area youths to be drafted Jan. 3 and 19 to report for physicals on Jan. 17; and 10 Alton area youths are to be drafted Jan. 17 and 40 are to report for pre-draft physicals on Jan. 24.

Safety Expert Advises—Keep Close Watch On Yule Tree

"Take the Christmas tree down when the needles start to fall," a Southern Illinois University safety expert stresses, because dry trees are fire hazards.

"Christmas greens, when dry, are a pitch-filled tinder, and are ready to burst into flame," warned Frank Bridges of the SIU Safety Center, Carbondale.

"Fire and panic take their toll at Christmas-time although fortunately this doesn't occur often, and there are precautions you can take to reduce greatly the possibility of it happening to you."

"First thing," he said, "don't get over-enthusiastic about setting up your tree well in advance of Christmas. Even though kept in water, a tree will become tinder-dry and a potential hazard long before the big day arrives."

Bridges recommended that a fresh diagonal cut be made at the base of the tree before it is set up. Then the tree should be placed in a stand with a container, in which the water level is above the top of the cut.

Other simple precautions: Keep the tree away from fireplaces and radiators and put it where it cannot possibly obstruct an exit from a room.

Use only approved wiring and lights and check them carefully each season before using.

Do not use flammable decorations around the base of the tree or on it.

Turn off lights before you leave the house and when no-

Highest Yule Tree In Town Tops Blast Furnace

The highest Christmas tree in town is an 18-footer up 200 feet on top of a blast furnace at the Granite City Steel Co. plant along Edwardsville road.

It and the one of Ferro Processing Co. atop a slag pile on the west side of Edwardsville road have given the Quad-Cities the appearance of a hilly area to strangers driving through at night.

The 20-foot tree on the slag pile has been there for a number of years, but this year marks the first time for a Yule tree to blossom forth atop a blast furnace.

The tree is designed so it won't catch fire. Workers under the supervision of Frank Kunkel, rigger foreman, sealed the blast furnace with pipe and wire to erect the tree. The slag pile is made of pipe.

The blast furnace tree is visible for miles from Bellevue, outside of Edwardsville and also the outskirts of Collinsville and East St. Louis.

Safety Council Urges 'Dry' Office Parties

Employers are urged by Quad-Cities Safety Council to rid themselves of the responsibility of drinking drivers by keeping their office Christmas parties dry this year.

Illinois Division of Traffic Safety facts indicate that many of the early holiday season accidents can be traced back to the office parties where employees celebrated the season and then attempted to drive home.

Safety Council officials said today: "Christmas can be celebrated by employees in a safe atmosphere, free of liquor and full of the true spirit of Christmas."

Although the employer is not legally responsible for the employees after they leave the plant or office, they are morally responsible for the accidents employees may cause or be involved in because alcohol had dulled their senses.

The Safety Council cautioned that drinking at Christmas parties can only lead to disaster eventually.

"You are among the many industries who have discontinued their Christmas parties, or, at least, have freed them from liquor."

If liquor is served at a Christmas party, employers should be responsible for providing taxi cabs or buses, driven by sober motorists, as a means for employees to return home from the party safely.

"Dry up your parties and keep the holiday season joyous," is the Safety Council's recommendation.

17 and 40 are to report for pre-draft physicals on Jan. 24.

Here's Harrison Jamie McMoore. From a skid he has troubles galore. This wreck is a nifty. McMoore was not thrifty... He should have bought tire chains before!

PREVENT THOSE WINTER DRIVING WOES

The Safe Winter Driving League presents this winter driving course from the National Safety Council. The course shows that reinforced tire chains cut stopping distance on snow and ice more effectively than anything else, and give from four to five times as much traction as regular tires without chains. Don't be a traffic blocker—always carry tire chains for severe snow and ice conditions.

Officers will be elected for the coming year.
